- 5.2. The ownership of the preference shares is transferred in accordance with the provisions of Law 31/1990, and in the event that they are admitted to trading on the stock exchange market, in accordance with capital market regulations.
- 5.3. New Issue
- 5.3.1. The Shareholders agree that the issuance of the New Shares or, if applicable, any other securities ("New Issue") shall be made by a resolution of the EGMS adopted by a majority of at least 30 (thirty) % of the voting rights of the Company upon the first convening notice, and by a majority of the voting rights of the Shareholders present or represented at subsequent convening notices.
- 5.3.2. Each Shareholder shall have the right to subscribe for such newly issued Shares or securities pro rata to his holding in the capital of the Company at that time, so as to maintain the level of holding in the share capital, at a subscription price not exceeding and on terms not less favourable than those offered to any other existing Shareholder.
- 5.3.3. The Proposal for Share Issuance and Increase of Capital ("IoC Proposal") shall be submitted either by (i) the Board of Directors or (ii) any Shareholder or group of Shareholders owning, individually or jointly, no less than 5 (five)% of the share capital of the Company. Any IoC Proposal shall be made in writing. As a minimum, each IoC Proposal must provide the following information: the amount proposed for the increase of capital ("IoC") and the type of Shares to be issued. In case of an IoC Proposal made by the Board of Directors, it shall indicate, as the case may be, the number of preferential rights for the subscription of a new share in the IoC, and the IoC Proposal must be accompanied by information and documents showing: the destination of the funds to be obtained by the Company following the IoC (such as: purchasing new assets, opening new lines of business, new projects, etc.), the timeline of projects proposed for financing via an Increase of Capital, the reasons behind the urgency (if any), the anticipated rate of return on such new projects, the other financing options available and their cost (such as the lending bank's cost), any relevant macroeconomic indicators, and any relevant market data.

5.4. Issue of preference shares

5.4.1. The Shareholders undertake to cause the Company to issue non-voting preference shares with priority dividend ("Preference Shares") under the terms of Law 31/1990 and in accordance with the following terms:

- a) The Preferred Shares will have a nominal value equal to that of the ordinary shares, i.e. 1 RON (one leu);
- b) The Preferred Shares shall at no time represent more than 25 (twenty-five) % of the share capital;
- c) The Preferred Shares entitle their holders to a priority dividend of 38 (thirteen) % of the nominal value of the share of RON 1 (one leu), i.e. a dividend of RON 0.38 (thirteen) % per share ("Priority Dividend"). The total amount of the annual Priority Dividends to which holders of preference shares are entitled will be capped at a maximum of 33% of the annual distributable profit determined in accordance with Law 31/1990, for the entire life of the preference shares. The mechanism for capping the total amount of the annual Priority Dividends, as set out above, shall in no case result in carrying forward to subsequent financial years the difference resulting between the total amount of the annual Priority Dividends to which the shareholders holding Preference Shares would have been entitled to receive as payment, reported at RON 0.38 per share, and the total amount of the Priority Dividends as a result of their capping at a maximum of 33% of the total distributable net profit determined in accordance with Law 31/1990.
- d) The holders of the Preferred Shares will be entitled to be paid the Priority Dividend by the Company each year, subject to the Company recording a net profit, in accordance with Law 31/1990;
- e) Holders of Preference Shares shall be entitled to receive the Priority Dividend with priority to all other payments, except for the Company's legal payment obligations, but before the payment of dividends to holders of ordinary shares;
- f) Holders of Preference Shares have all other rights provided by Law 31/1990, including, but not limited to, the right to attend General Meetings and the right to vote only if the Company fails to pay Priority Dividends;
- g) The Preference Shares are equal to each other, which entitles their holders to the same Priority Dividend per share and the same rights;
- h) Payment of the Priority Dividend will be made from 2023 (for the financial year 2022) and will be made by allotment of ordinary shares on account of the amounts due as Priority Dividend. The allocation of Ordinary Shares on account of the Priority Dividend will be made through a share capital increase addressed to all shareholders of the Company, the latter having the possibility to maintain their participation in the share capital by participating in such increase.
- i) Any new issue of Preferred Shares or conversion of Preferred Shares into Common Shares or conversion of Common Shares into Preferred Shares shall be made only with the approval of the Founding Shareholders, i.e. with the affirmative vote of five out of seven Founding Shareholders.

5.4.2. The Shareholders undertake to cause the Company to issue Preference Shares, as aforesaid, as follows: (i) for the first RON 25,000,000 of the share capital, following capital increases made after the Signing Date, the Company shall convert ordinary shares into Preference Shares up to 25% of the share capital. Following each share capital increase operation,

Shareholders subscribing for ordinary shares will have the option to convert ordinary shares into Preferred Shares pro rata, based on the total/cumulative percentage of ordinary shares held and fully paid up by such shareholder at that date, i.e. the total shares held at the date of the share capital increase plus the shares subscribed for in the share capital increase; and (ii) for the following 50.000,000 of the share capital, the Company shall convert/issue ordinary shares into Preference Shares up to 10% of the additional share capital.

- 5.4.3. Shareholders undertake to vote, approve and sign any resolution of the General Meeting necessary to implement the provisions of this Clause 5.4.
- 5.4.4. Shareholders agree to make their best efforts and take all steps to list the preference shares issued by the Company on the Bucharest Stock Exchange or any other reputable stock exchange in a member state of the European Union within a maximum of 36 months from the date of the last conversion of preference shares from ordinary shares (by technical listing, without any other formalities).
- 5.4.5. The Shareholders agree that the listing of the Company's preference shares shall be made on the basis of a EGMS resolution, adopted by a majority of at least 30 (thirty) % of the voting rights of the Company, regardless of whether it is adopted at the first call or at a subsequent call, and in all cases only with the positive vote of the majority (50% + 1) of the Founding Shareholders (i.e. four out of seven).
- 5.4.6. Starting from the second half of 2037, after the distribution of priority dividends for the financial year 2036, the shareholders of the company (holders of ordinary shares with voting rights) may meet in the EGMS and vote on the conversion of these preference shares into ordinary shares.

5.5. Special meeting of holders of non-voting preference shares with priority dividend

- 5.6. The holders of Preferred Shares will meet in a special meeting of holders of Priority Dividend Preferred Shares without voting rights. Meetings of holders of Preference Shares may discuss any matters relating to the Preference Shares and may make proposals to the General Meetings of Shareholders of the Company on such matters. Meetings of holders of Preference Shares may not discuss and take decisions on matters which are within the competence of the General Meetings (Ordinary or Extraordinary) of Shareholders of the Company or the Board of Directors.
- 5.7. Meetings of the holders of Preferred Shares shall be convened by the holders of at least 10 (ten)% of the total number of Preferred Shares, by sending a registered letter with confirmation of receipt or by sending the convening notice by electronic mail to the e-mail addresses in the Company's records and communicated in advance by the shareholders, at least 30 (thirty) days prior to the proposed date of the meeting. The convening notice shall include the date, time and place of the meeting as well as the proposed agenda and any information material necessary for the discussion of the items on the agenda.
- 5.8. At the first convening, the Meeting may be validly held only in the presence of the holders of at least 50 (fifty) % plus one of the total number of Preferred Shares and may take decisions on the basis of a simple majority (50%+1) of those present or represented. At a second convening, the Meeting may deliberate on the items on the agenda of the first meeting, regardless of the quorum present, by taking decisions by a simple majority (50%+1) of those present or represented.
- 5.9. At each meeting, the shareholders will elect, by the above majority, a chairman and a secretary of the meeting who will prepare the attendance list, check the quorum and the proxies, draw up and sign the minutes of the meeting, record the decisions taken, the majorities expressed thereon and any positions taken and expressions of opinion relevant to the agenda or otherwise.

Article 6 - Company Administration

- 6.1. The Company is managed on a unitary basis by a Board of Directors consisting of 5 (five) members appointed by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders for a maximum period of 4 (four) years, with the possibility of re-election for successive terms.

- 6.2. The majority of the members of the Board of Directors are non-executive directors.
- 6.3. Board members will be insured for professional liability.
- 6.4. The members of the Board of Directors shall perform their duties pursuant to a management/mandate agreement between the Company and each of the members.
- 6.5. In the event of a vacancy, the Board of Directors shall appoint a provisional member for a term of office starting on the date of appointment and ending on the date on which the General Meeting of Shareholders decides to appoint a member to the Board of Directors.
- 6.6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is appointed by the Board of Directors from among its members.
- 6.7. The Board of Directors shall meet in regular meetings, convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors at least once every 3 months, or at the initiative of at least two of its members. The notice of the meetings shall be sent to the members of the Board of Directors at least five (5) calendar days before the proposed date of a regular meeting. The period of five (5) days may be reduced if none of the members of the Board objects to a shorter period. Board meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman or, in his absence, by one of the Directors designated by the Chairman. The Chairman of the meeting shall appoint a secretary of the meeting.
- 6.8. Notices of meetings of the Board of Directors must be sent in writing, by e-mail, registered letter or messenger, in each case with acknowledgement of receipt, and must include the date, time and place of the meeting, as well as the proposed agenda and the materials underlying the items on the agenda. The meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at any time without notice, if all members of the Board of Directors are present (in person or by proxy) or if those who are not present expressly waive, in writing, the requirement to receive the notice of meeting.
- 6.9. The Board of Directors may hold meetings by:
- a) Direct participation in the meeting of the members, in person or by proxy, at the place provided for in the notice of meeting or at the agreed location, both in the case of a meeting convened with the fulfilment of the formalities for convening the meeting and in the case of a meeting convened without the formalities for convening the meeting;
 - b) Participation of members in the meeting by using the following means of remote communication: e.g. conference call or video conference, provided that the technical conditions necessary for the identification of participants and the continuous retransmission of deliberations are met;
 - c) By correspondence, in exceptional cases justified by the urgency of the situation and by the interest of the Company, by unanimous vote expressed in writing by all the members of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board shall decide on the urgency of the decision, stating the reasons justifying the urgency in the preamble to the decision adopted by correspondence.
- 6.10. The meeting of the Board of Directors is legally convened if at least three (3) members of the Board of Directors are present (in person or by proxy), and decisions at the meeting are taken by a majority vote of the members present at the meeting.
- 6.11. Powers of the Board of Directors.
- 6.11.1. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the performance of all acts, deeds, actions and procedures necessary and useful to carry out the object of activity of the Company, with the exception of those acts and actions that fall within the competence of the General Assembly according to the Applicable Law.
- 6.11.2. The management of the Company is delegated, by the Board of Directors, to the Directors of the Company, the latter having the power to represent the Company in relation to third parties, according to the powers granted by the appointment decision.
- 6.11.3. The Board of Directors has the following core competencies which cannot be delegated to Directors:

 - 7.3.11. to decide to amend the Management Agreement;
 - 7.3.12. to appoint the appraiser appointed to determine the Company's Market Value;
 - 7.3.13. to decide to dissolve the Company;
 - 7.3.14. to decide on any transaction individually or cumulatively with the same group of companies with an impact greater than 20% of the company's assets or EUR 4 million (or RON equivalent at the date of the transaction);
 - 7.3.15. to make any substantial changes to the nature or organisation of the Company's business or to the interruption or cessation of the Company's operations in whole or in part;
 - 7.3.16. to decide on the listing of the Company;
 - 7.3.17. any other amendment to the articles of association or any other resolution for which the approval of the extraordinary general meeting is required.
- Shareholders agree that the powers set out in item 7.3.2 be delegated to the Board of Directors.
- 7.4. The resolutions of the EGMS shall be adopted in all cases with the vote of Shareholders representing at least 30 (thirty) % of the voting rights of the Company. At the second convening, the EGMS may decide on the items on the agenda of the first meeting, irrespective of the quorum present, by a majority of the votes cast. However, the issuance by the Company of a maximum number of 11,250,000 preference shares and the resolutions of the EGMS in respect of item 7.3.6. above shall be adopted by the vote of 95% of the Company's Shareholders present or represented at the EGMS, whether on the first or any subsequent convening. Furthermore, the decisions referred to in art. 5.4, art. 7.3.11 and art. 7.3.17 can only be legally adopted if the above mentioned majority includes the positive vote of the majority (50%+1) of the Founding Shareholders.
- 7.5. The resolutions of the OGMS shall be adopted with the vote of the Shareholders representing at least 30 (thirty) % of the voting rights of the Company, in the case of the first convening. At a second convening, the OGMS may decide on the items on the agenda of the first meeting, irrespective of the quorum present, by a majority of the votes cast.
- 7.6. OGMS resolutions on distribution of dividends (irrespective of their kind) in cash shall be adopted by Shareholders representing at least 80 (eighty)% of the voting rights in the Company. This provision shall apply for a period of 5 (five) years from the admission to trading of the common shares issued by the Company.
- 7.7. As concerns the EGMS, it will decide on the modification of the main object of activity, reduction or increase of the share capital, change of legal form, merger, division or dissolution of the Company on the basis of the favourable vote of Shareholders representing at least 30 (thirty) % of the voting rights of the Company, but in all cases not less than two thirds of the voting rights held by the Shareholders present and/or represented at that meeting.
- 7.8. Amendments to Articles 5.4.3, 7.4 and 7.6 of these Articles of Association, as well as the amendment or deletion of this Article 7.8, shall be adopted by a vote of the Shareholders representing a qualified majority of at least 95 (ninety-five) % of the voting rights of the Company, regardless of whether it is the first convening or any subsequent convenings.

- 7.9. In order to avoid any misunderstandings regarding the approval of the conversion of preference shares into ordinary shares, under the terms and conditions mentioned in Article 5.4.6 of these Articles of Association, this may be done with the vote of Shareholders representing at least 60 (sixty) % of the voting rights of the Company, regardless of whether it is the first or the second convening.
- 7.10. The provisions of this Article 7 shall be supplemented by the provisions of Law 31/1990 (including, but not limited to, the formalities for convening and holding General Meetings), insofar as the latter do not contradict those stipulated in these Articles of Association.
